Aim:

By choosing Birchwood Junior School, The Lancaster Infant School and Woodlands Infant and Nursery School for your child's education, the parent/carer and their children are selecting to follow the behaviour policy of The Birchwood Federation.

To ensure all children make sensible and informed choices, feel valued, safe, comfortable and confident their efforts and contributions are respected. We will nurture the aspirations and independence, foster a caring and sensitive attitude and a responsibility to take care of others, the school environment and the wider community.

COVID-19 Update:

Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic, children are likely to behave differently as they return to school and the school will take these factors into consideration. The school will also implement some different approaches (outlined in red within this policy) in order to adhere to the government's strategy to combat the COVID-19 virus.

Shared beliefs: Primary prevention of destructive behaviour occurs when a staff team adheres to a shared ethos and consistently follows procedures and guidelines in implementing behaviour management. We are an inclusive school.

All behaviour is communication and destructive behaviour can result from;

- Anxiety and panic
- Abuse (Physical / Sexual / Emotional / Neglect)
- Limited repertoire of responses
- Low self-esteem and self-hate
- Lack of understanding, skill or competency during learning or experience
- Attention-neediness
- Immature emotional development
- Vulnerability and a means of survival
- External factors in the environment
- Dynamics between individuals

The relationships built between adults and children is the greatest influence in preventing harmful behaviour. The most successful intervention in preventing or de-escalating challenging behaviour is the power of the adult-child bond. Consequently, it is crucial that every member of staff has a positive relationship with every child in the school.

The following are guidelines to build and maintain positive relationships with our children:

- Be consistent, insistent and persistent in approach to create security and stability
- Demonstrate unconditional acceptance of the child
- Disapprove of the behaviour but not the child
- Offer emotional involvement as well as a primary care
- Listen to the child; know their fears and perceptions, their interests and dislikes
- Understand the sources of their difficulties, do not judge their families or carers but work with them towards solutions
- Be the adult and do not collude with the child
- Be consistent in all interactions
- Be fair and respectful in approach
- Work on praise and self-esteem positive comments should far outweigh negative ones. "Catch them being good".
- Provide clear boundaries of control. Set limits for behaviour and confidently stick to them. All children have to know the difference between appropriate and inappropriate behaviour
- Apply limits and sanctions firmly but fairly
- When dealing with difficult behaviour staff will be calm and non-retaliatory
- All staff will remember the long-term goals agreed with the child - a child will not reach them immediately.

Provision:

- Pupils, parents and staff work in partnership to support and celebrate learning where possible.
- To be a caring school community where everyone and everything is valued and respected.
- To establish consistent procedures which will encourage self discipline, allowing pupils to acknowledge their responsibility to themselves and the community.

- Children will understand that rules and routines are to support the rights, responsibilities and respect of others.

Sanctions

COVID-19 Update:

- Any pupil who commits serious or persistent breach of the new COVID-19 protection rules may be sanctioned by the Headteacher using the full range of sanctions available, dependent on the seriousness of the breach, up to and including in extreme cases permanent exclusion.

- Physical Intervention will be used as a last resort however during the COVID-19 Pandemic the use of Physical Intervention will not be used which would then lead to a fixed term/permanent exclusion depending on the incident. This decision will be made by Headteacher (Fixed Term & Permanent).
- An individual risk assessment will be applied to pupils displaying dangerous and persistent disruptive behaviour.

If a child is displaying disruptive or inappropriate behaviour:

- The child should be informed of his / her choices: either change the behaviour being shown or be advised of the consequences (for example; payback of time) Payback to be in the hall with children minimum 2m apart in respect to the social distancing rules.
- If the behaviour continues then the decision will be made by the adult that payback of time will be required
- If the behaviour being presented is dangerous to the child, peers or staff members then Physical Intervention will be used to maintain safety.
- If a child refuses to remove themselves from a situation then they may be guided / escorted if necessary by the adult(s) (following clear instructions and one reminder the decision to escort the child should be made without further warnings)

- Once the decision for a child to be removed from a situation or pay time back it will be followed through – maintaining a consistent, insistent and persistent approach to behaviour at all times
- If the use of PI (Physical Intervention) is necessary it is important to understand that this does not alter the sanction, a separate sanction for the use of PI will not be enforced

- Any child displaying coughing, sneezing or spitting intently at another child or staff member will result in that child receiving a fixed term/permanent exclusion based on the COVID-19 risk assessment to control the spread of the virus and save lives.
- The payback time is equivalent to the time not making the right choice and it to be paid back in the school hall during either a playtime or lunchtime (all adults on duty as well as the child themselves will be clear as to how much time is owed)

Implementation of Physical Intervention

- All adults will remain calm at all times regardless of the situation. Adults will remain in full control and ensures that the child feels safe
- Only the minimum number of adults required to safely restrain the child will be involved at any time (the only adults interacting with the child will be those sat with him or her)
- Physical Intervention will be used for the period of time deemed necessary by the staff members involved ie. until the child, peers and adults are safe and resolution can begin. The release of the child will only be when the adults feel that child is calm and safe enough - when they are responding to the adults appropriately
- Once the need for PI is no longer required there will be a post incident discussion, child voice is of the utmost importance. What happened? How did you feel? What could you do next time? How can we put this right?
- A plethora of de-escalation strategies will be utilised (planned ignoring / humour / calm talking / distraction / change of face) in order to best support the child
- If a Physical Intervention is deemed to become dangerous or has to be carried out for an extended period of time, a fixed term exclusion may result at the discretion of the Executive Head Teacher / Head of School.

Post incident discussion:

- During the post incident discussion, the child will be made aware of the reasons for them being taken out of class and the consequences which they have (the time to pay back).
- If the child is not ready to accept their consequences or if there is any negative attitude from the child during the discussion of them then they are deemed not ready to return to class. Adults will calmly explain to the child that they will attempt that discussion again in a few minutes when they feel the child is ready to listen and respond calmly.
- The child will not be returned to class until they have fully understood and accepted their consequences and can communicate with the adults politely and calmly (the aim is not to return the child to class as quickly as possible but to prevent the child from repeating the same behaviour pattern).

Returning the child to class:

- Once the child has understood and accepted their consequences then they are ready to return to class. It is important at this point that the relationship with the adult is restored and that it is made clear that it is the behaviour which the adult disapproved of and not the child
- When returning the child to class, the dialogue between the adult returning the child and the adult in class is paramount but will be minimal
- The child will be given the opportunity to apologise, this apology will be accepted by the adult.

- This dialogue will be positive and focusing on the return to class and the purpose is simply to communicate to the adult in class what consequences have been given (eg. You'll be pleased to hear miss that X is ready to re-join the class, they understand that they have 10 minutes to pay back at lunchtime, I know I will hear good things about the rest of their day later)

Change of face:

- A change of face is very important and useful de-escalation strategy as it can prevent the situation from becoming personal. Any adult swapping into the situation will be informed of what the child needs to do to put the situation right and this will remain consistent with any new adult.
- A change of face does not constitute a new incident of physical intervention, it is logged within the same incident on the record form

Ladder of intervention:

Birchwood Junior School, The Lancaster School and Woodlands Infant and Nursery School follow the Lincolnshire Ladder of Intervention in supporting behaviour of a challenging nature. Please see Appendix 3 – The Birchwood Federation Ladder of Intervention.

- Any pupil presenting 'at risk' behaviours will be screened for underlying Special Educational Needs, at the discretion of the school SENCO. Where a Special Educational Need is identified an SEN Support Assess-Plan-Do-Review cycle will be implemented. Requiring parental engagement.
- For all pupils who are 'at risk' the environmental factors will be investigated, where unmet needs are identified support will be implemented through the means of an Early Help Assessment or TAC where necessary. Requiring parental engagement.
- For pupils who remain 'at risk' a Pastoral Support Plan will be put in place by the SENCO and referrals made to outside agencies (such as BOSS / art therapy). Requiring parental engagement.
- For those pupils who, despite intensive interventions, remain 'at risk' a referral for an intervention placement in alternative provision can be made

Before a permanent exclusion is made consideration will have been given to a managed move or an intervention placement.

Exclusions

In accordance with the DFE Guidance; Exclusion from Mainstream Schools Sept. 2017.

Fixed term exclusions

- A pupil may be excluded for one or more fixed periods (up to a maximum of 45 school days in a single academic year), or permanently. A fixed-period exclusion does not have to be for a continuous period.
- A fixed term exclusion can also be for parts of the school day for example, if a pupil's behavior is disruptive at lunchtime then they maybe excluded from the school premises for the duration of the lunchtime period.
- The behaviour of a pupil outside school can be considered grounds for an exclusion.
- The head teacher will take account of their legal duty of care when sending a pupil home following an exclusion.
- Learning will be provided for the pupil during times of fixed term exclusions.
- The child and parents will need to attend a re-integration meeting following a fixed term exclusion where a reduced timetable and may or may not be put in place.

- It is the responsibility of the parent/carer to ensure COVID-19 social distancing is adhered to during the period of an exclusion and social distancing measures will be put in place for the reintegration meeting after the fixed term exclusion.
- A PSP will be put in place following an exclusion.
- The Executive Headteacher / Head of School reserve the right to exclude pupils from educational visits or residential trips if their behavior is deemed to be dangerous.
- When an educational visit follows a fixed term exclusion the pupil may be required to remain in school during this time for their safety and that of others.

Permanent exclusions

A decision to exclude a pupil permanently will be taken:

- in response to a serious breach or persistent breaches of the school's behaviour policy; and
- where allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of the pupil or others in the school.

The behaviour of a pupil outside school can be considered grounds for an exclusion.

The Executive Head Teacher will take account of their legal duty of care when sending a pupil home following an exclusion.

Consideration will be given to a managed move or intervention placement before the decision to permanently exclude is made.

Communication and record keeping:

- All behaviour and safeguarding incidents will be logged by the adult primarily involved using the schools electronic recording procedure – CPOMS. The designated safeguarding leads will review all behaviour and safeguarding incidents and decide upon appropriate future action.
- Parents will be informed of all incidents of Physical Intervention or bullying by a member of the Senior Leadership Team.
- Parents must sign the Physical Intervention log to acknowledge that they have been informed of an incident

- It is the responsibility of the all adults to inform all support adults of concerns about individual pupils.
- Every term, exclusions and number of Physical Interventions will be reported to the governors.
